SAFE SPORT INFORMATION

Athlete safety and well-being are USA Gymnastics' highest priority, and the USA Gymnastics Safe Sport Policy is one of the most powerful tools the organization has for athlete protection

As the parents and guardians of a minor who is member of USA Gymnastics as an athlete or a junior professional/instructor, you need to be fully aware of the Safe Sport Policy, its mandates and member requirements, as well as understand the roles each of us have in athlete safety.

1. The Safe Sport Policy and what it means for your child.

The Safe Sport Policy requires mandatory reporting, defines six types of misconduct, sets standards to prohibit grooming behavior and prevent inappropriate interaction, and establishes greater accountability.

2. What is now required of your gym in protecting your child.

Your gym must have a policy consistent with the USA Gymnastics Safe Sport Policy and include, at a minimum, a description of conduct that will not be tolerated; Proactive Policies; and a process for receiving and handling complaints regarding conduct violations.

Additionally, a member club is not permitted to hire or associate with anyone on the USA Gymnastics Permanently Ineligible for Membership List or a state sex-offender registry.

3. What you, as a parent or guardian, can do in protecting your child.

Accountability is key for USA Gymnastics' safe sport efforts to make a difference. It is appropriate and important for parents to ask essential child protection questions.

Please ask your gym about its policies and become familiar with the USA Gymnastics Safe Sport Policy's Proactive Policies to make certain the gym and its staff are complying.

Please review the Proactive Policies with your child so he/she understands the requirements in place at the gym and/or for his/her coach.

And lastly, please talk to your children about the six categories of misconduct (sexual, physical and verbal/emotional abuse, bullying, hazing and harassment) and the prohibited behavior addressed in the Proactive Policies. Let them know they are empowered, and encouraged, to speak up should any of the six types of misconduct or prohibited behaviors be directed at them or others.

USA Gymnastics is committed to building a culture of empowerment that encourages our athletes to speak up, especially about difficult topics, and promotes a safe, positive training environment. We need you, along with the entire gymnastics community, to work with us to make gymnastics stronger, safer and more empowered.

Make A Report

If child abuse is occurring, call 911 immediately. If you suspect or know of child abuse, call local police and child services. Once reported to law enforcement, report it to the U.S. Center for SafeSport.

To report sexual misconduct: If you suspect or have knowledge of sexual misconduct, contact the U.S. Center for SafeSport immediately.
Online: safesport.org/report-a-concern. By phone: 720.524.5640.

To report non-sexual misconduct to USA Gymnastics: Report all forms of safe sport non-sexual misconduct (physical misconduct; verbal/emotional misconduct; bullying; hazing; and harassment) to USA Gymnastics. Online: usagym.org/safesport Hotline: 833.844.SAFE (7233) Email: safesport@usagym.org

USA Gymnastics mandates that all members follow state and federal laws governing reporting of child abuse. If you are 18 years of age or older and are subject to USA Gymnastics Safe Sport policy, you are required to report all instances of possible child abuse or neglect to law enforcement and state child services.

Parent/Guardian initial here to acknowledge that you have received and read the information the above regarding understanding the USA Gymnastics' Safe Sport Policy.
